Mentality Of Dr. Masury Defended

Court Told He Planned Thousand Dollar Treasure Hunts For Secretary

When trial of the suits growing out of gifts made by the late Dr. John M. Masury to the former Diane Hayden, his secretary, were resumed in Judge Archibald's branch of the Superior court this week, Rudolph R. Hartman, Sierra Madre druggist, and Miss Oliva Moore, screen actress, were among the witnesses.

Miss Moore said the was a frequent visitor at the Masury home and never saw the doctor under the influence of liquor or opiates, her testimony being intended to refute charges of the Masury family that Dr. Masury's mentality was weakened by drugs and alcohol and that undue influence was exerted over him to exact gifts of $80,000 and provisions for the future of his secretary.

Mrs. Matthews is seeking to retain these gifts and told of being taken into the Masury home and living for 11 years as a member of the family. She toured the world with Dr. Masury and his party in the doctor's yacht, and with her attorney-husband, Paul R. Matthews, contends that Dr. Masury was very wealth, and it was not unreasonable for him to make her these gifts.

In a letter to Mrs. Matthews, exhibited to the court as proof that Dr. Masury knew what he was doing, the physician advised her that he had deeded her his half of the family home on East Laurel avenue and that he had advised his wife, Mrs. Martha Masury, to deed her the other half. In endearing terms the doctor expressed his gratitude for the daughterly devotion shown by Mrs. Matthews while she was his secretary.

Rudolph R. Hartman was one of the witnesses for the plaintiff at Tuesday's session. He was questioned regarding his friendship with the late physician, who was intensely interested in photography and boats.

Mrs. Matthews testified that she became secretary to Dr. Masury in the spring of 1927, and for nine years the doctor worked on the story of his life. In 1936 Mrs. Matthews claimed her employer ordered her to help him destroy all that had been written and that among papers not burned was a declaration of trust which she had prepared under his instruction, and under which he set up a $50,000 fund for her benefit. So called "gift letters" were introduced by attorneys for the estate who expect to show, they indicated, undue influence on the part of Mrs. Matthews to induce Dr. Masury to secure gifts of great value.

Testimony concerning "treasure hunts" with $1,000 bonds at the end of the search was put on the record, along with sentimental notes as trail blazers. It was explained that this was Dr. Masury's method of making Christmas gifts to his secretary.

Boys Reach Safety In Canyon Before Rescuers Arrive

Trapped on a ledge in little Santa Anita Canyon Saturday a mile above the flood control dam in Sierra Madre, tow Monrovia boys, Charles Norris and Eugene Ross, climbed to safety just a few minutes before Forest Guard Keith Kaylor and M. Cyester of the Santa Anita ranger station reached them.

Aseries of small falls proved too hazardous for the boys to traverse when seeking a short cut to the trail. Hikers along the Orchard Camp trail to Mt. Wilson brought word of the boys' predicament to local police.

Single Tax To Be Aired For Local PTA

Important Proposals On November Ballot Will Be Discussed Thursday

"The right of suffrage is a democracy," will be the subject at the meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association in the grammar school auditorium Thursday afternoon, October 20th at 2:30.

The speaker will be Mrs. Charles Sydnor, legislative chairman of the Pasadena Council Parent-Teachers Association, who has a thorough knowledge of the topic, a quiet manner and a fine sense of humor that would enliven a most prosiac discussion.

Mrs. Sydnor's aim is to clarify the meaning and import of some of the 24 measures on the November ballot. In accord with its non-partisan character, the Parent-Teachers Association has never before endorsed or approved measures to be voted upon. However, in measure No. 20, repealing the sales tax, it feels the home and the school are so vitally affected that Mrs. Sydnor will deal particularly with this issue. Several others will be taken up as time permits.

It will be helpful for discussion purposes if those attending will bring their copies of the sample ballots, should these be delivered to voters by that time.

An opportunity will be afforded old and new members to enroll and small children may be left in charge of a competent attendant on the kindergarten playground during the meeting.

More Citizens Here May Cast Ballots Than Ever Before

There is an admitted Communist in Sierra Madre, eight Socialists and 13 Prohibitionists. The Townsend party has the highest enrollment (13) outside of the two major parties, and 166 citizens don't want their fellow townsmen to know what their political leanings are, so they refused to enroll as members of any party.

Exctly 2,641 local residents are qualified to vote at the all important election next month, a slight increase over the previous high registration reported for the September primary.

Registration figures were certified to the city hall yesterday by the county registrar of voters. showing 139 more Democrats than Republicans, the Democratic registration being 1,286 and the Republican, 1,147. Only four are registered as Progressives.

A new high record number of citizens are qualified in the county, the registration exceeding 1,500,000.

The city council Tuesday approved an application from the Guild for the closing of Montecito avenue 25 feet on either side of the Dewey Studio for a Hallowe'en street dance and entertainment.

New Cars To Improve P.E. Service

Hollywood Type With Center Entrance Come On Local Line Monday

Starting Monday the "600" type aPcific Electric car will go into active service and will be a permanent part of the shuttle run between Sierra Madre and San Marino. The transportation committee of the local Chamber of Commerce has been working with H. O. Marler, Pacific Electric head, and it is through their efforts to cooperate for better service that the latest improvement has been effected for the carriding public.

The "600" car, new to Sierra Madre line, was formely operated in the West Los Angeles-Hollywood district, and was strictly a local car. It has a center entrance and is much lower than the old type which makes for more convenience in entering. Following trial runs early in the week changes in the motor and wiring have been made to fit in with hill climbing requirements. The new all steel "1100" red cars will continue to be used for the early morning and late evening through runs to Los Angeles.

Members of the transportation committee who have worked hard for this improvement are E. E. Hitchcock, Thomas Meader and Harold Roberts.

Fires At Forests Edge Alarm City

Sierra Madre and the whole U. S. forest service in Southern California was feverishly excited Monday afternoon when flames leaped into the air from a brush fire at the city's northern boundary at the edge of the Angelus forest back of Lizzie's Trail Inn. Sparks from an incinerator at the home of Miss Ockerson at the northern extremity of Mountain Trail caused the fire. When firemen arrived Miss Ockerson was trying to subdue the flames with a garden hose and was in imminent danger of being surrounded by the flames. She was rushed to safety by Jim Heasley.

Water from tanks on the local fire apparatus subdued the blaze and firemen returned to the station only to be called back a few minutes later when a spark smouldering in dry leaves and underbrush across a gully near the original fire burst into flames. By this time the U.S. Forest fire patrol had arrived with its equipment and a score of CCC boys and with the aid of the Sierra Madre fire department spread of the flames into the forest was prevented after more than an acre had been burned over.

Many Sierra Madre Folks Finally Wrote Those Letters

Were you one of the hundreds of Sierra Madreans who caught up with past due correspondence last week and helped swell the mail passing through the local post office to 10,128 pounds, an increase of 2,125 pounds over the previous week?

Townspeople entered whole heartedly into the spirit of National Letter Writing Week which opened October 2 and closed Saturday, Postmaster Caukin declared. Friends and relatives were brought closer together, misunderstandings were straightened out and more than likely budding romances flourished—all through a letter!

Another interesting fact about Sierra Madre's participation in National Letter Writing Week was the sale of 5,800 three-cent stamps. This was an increase of 2,1000 three-cent stamps sold over the previous week, when the figure totalled 3,700.

Democrats To Open Headquarters Here This Morning

Democratic headquarters for the November campaign were opened this morning at 12 N. Baldwin with Mrs. Grace B. Caukin in charge. ## Medal For War Vet After 20 Years

Twenty years is a long time to wait for a medal but Daniel H. Lewis thought it was better late than never. The presentation was made through the historian of the 91st Division of the A.E.F., San Francisco.

Boy Cyclist Killed By Motorist

Police Seek Hit-Run Driver Who Struck Down Ted Parmenter

An inquest into the death of Theodore ("Ted") Edmond Parmenter, 16, who died at St. Luke hospital, Monday night, a few hours after being struck by a hit-and-run driven on East Foothill extension, will be held this morning at Grant Chapel.

The youth lived in Sierra Madre with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Parmenter and sister, Dorothy, for about 10 years, moving to Pasadena a year and a half ago. The family lived at 430 North Vinedo avenue, Pasadena.

The boy was riding his bicycle east on Foothill Blvd. in the right-hand lane when the car, traveling in the same direction, struck and threw young Parmenter nearly 30 feet.

John Sherwood, Monrovia contractor, living at 326 Lynwood street, was held without bail in the Pasadena jail for investigation of negligent homicide. A young woman whose identity has not been revealed told officers she witnessed the accident through her rear view mirror and took the license number of the death car as it passed. It was her alertness that brought about the arrest of Sherwood, who admitted that he drove on Foothill Extension on his way home about the time of the accident but denied striking the boy.

Witnesses told deputies that the motorist, instead of trying to stop, picked up speed and drove east.

Funeral services for the young victim will b held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from Grant Chapel with Rev. S. R. Sheriff officiating and Mrs. Craon in charge of the music.

"Ted" Parmenter was born July 28, 1922, in Long Beach and attended the local grammar school. While in Sierra Madre the family lived on Mariposa avenue. Survivors are the parents and one sister.

Grand View Paving Job Nears End

Following acceptance by the city of its bid for the grading and paving of Grand View avenue between Mountain Trail and Santa Anita avenue, as Osborne Construction Company of Pasadena moved in on the job Monday and expects to have the street completed early next week. The city council Tuesday evening directed that warning signs be posted at Grand View avenue intersections advising the public that there is no bridge across Santa Anita wash. The council passed on first reading an ordinance putting the Pacific Coast building code into effect in Sierra Madre in its entirety. The code fills a book of 150 pages.

The council referred to the police department a complaint by Miss Virginia Miller of Auburn avenue that jacaranda trees planted in front of and near her home were the object of malicious vandalism.

SIERRA MADREAN TELLS OF HARROWING EXPERIENCES IN EAST COAST TORNADO

A vivid description of the havoc wrought by the recent storm and tidal wave that swept the New England coast has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Preston Schwartz from their son Charles, a resident of Providence, R.I., in which he relates his personal experiences.

Mr. Schwartz from his office window in the downtown district saw high school students—even policemen, swept off their feet and whirled head over heels as they attempted to cross the highway. Brass plaques marking the high water mark of the great gale in Providence in 1850 were several feet under water after the tidal wave struck, he wrote.

A few minutes after Mr. Schwartz left his office in the business district in the Mall, the area was covered from a depth of eight to twelve feet of water and pedestrian caught in the deluge were pulled into office buildings by ropes lowered to them.

The home of the Schwartz' was badly battered by the storm and for hours Mr. Schwartz relates he and his wife sat in their home expecting momentarily that the high wind would carry it away. Fortunately, this did not happen, but their property was badly damaged.

Estimating the cost at $200,000 the Los Angeles Regional Planning Commission and the county road department have recommended construction of a road extending across the Hastings Ranch from Rosemead avenue and Foothill Blvd., to North Foothill Blvd. in Pasadena.

It would be a new section of Foothill Blvd., providing a new entrance into Pasadena and Altadena and straightening out the triangle where Foothill Blvd. now turns north in Lamanda Park. The project calls for a new bridge across Eaton wash estimated to cost $50,000.

The Planning Commission has also recommended the expenditure of $350,000 for Improvement of Rosemead Blvd. south to the traffic circle in the eastern section of Long Beach. Both projects have been submitted to the State Highway Commission at Sacramento.

O'Conner for Governor in this district has written a letter to Leland Fogg of this city declining the offer to make him chairman of the Democratic Campaign committee of the 48th Assembly District on condition that he cease his opposition to the candidacy of Hamblen.

"My sentiments, shared by many thousands of loyal Democrats in this district, are that Mr. Hamblen's withdrawal from the Demorcatic ticket would be the most helpful thing he could do for the Democratic party," Mr. Wood wrote.

Women's organizations, opposing the election of Hamblen, have been formed in Lamanda Park, Pasadena, Glendale and San Fernando, in each case Democratic women constituting the bulk of the club membership.

The.... Watch Tower

By Perley Poore Sheehan

WE STILL believe it—whenever we're sane, we do; that "all things work together for good to them that love God." Love God; love the Truth, that is. With that perfect Love which is said to cast out fear. The Bible statement like a text for Emerson's sermon on Compensation. Hear Emerson: "Our strength grows out of our weakness. Not until we are pricked and stung and sorely shot at, awakens the indignation which arms itself with secret forces." Or, "God," says Emerson, "reappears with all his parts in every moss and cobweb." You'll find the statement somewhere in Acts, how the Jews were made great—during their stay in Egypt.

DAYS of pain, of depression, of disappointment. Days when we're like the character in Moore's old poem, Lalla Rookh, "beholding heaven and feeling hell." Feeling like Satan himself in Paradise Lost: "Myself am hell!" Unable to escape it by any change of place . . . As a child we used to look at that picture of Satan in a gilt-edge copy of Milton's book—a drawing by Dore (with an accent on the final e): Satan seated on a rock, high on the mountainside, all alone. The memory went with us as we climbed into the solitude of our own mountains the other day.

Alone each heart must cover up its dead;
Alone, through bitter toil, achieve its rest.

BAYARD TAYLOR'S lines. But a reflection that Adam must have felt when he was digging that earliest grave; and Eve, alone in her cave with Abel's discarded playthings. But a reflection of our own that came pulsing softly in upon us with a returning sanity was that all this pain, grief, rebellion, and despair—all these were probably old before Adam even. Old as Creation. Old as God—Who "reappears in all his parts in every moss . . " Lucid now, we seemed to see it. There would have been—nor could have been—no Creation without these things that now distress us. Pangs this old Earth must have felt when cast out of its solar Eden; pangs the babies of the Earth repeat when born. Here the Earth went human. We heard her whisper: "Pangs which in every case the Mother-Creator also shares."

MORE whispers from the Earth. More than can be told. Recalling sweet Chaucer's, "Nature, the vicar of the almightie Lord;" Shelley's "See the mountains kiss high heaven, And the waves clasp one another." But what the Earth was saying told how, time and again, ever since mountains had been cast up from the sea—and off and on down through the eons when the green earth had been shaken like a rug—what shrieks! what protests! Then, when man appeared. Had the Lord then folded his hands in sleep? That would have been a withdrawal of the Word. The Word by which all things were and continued to be. The Word which was revealed to man as an eternity of Creation through an Eternity of Crucifixion. We sat there looking out over the San Gabriel Valley. So seraphic! It also spoke: "And of Faith, Hope, Love."

THE Valley was right. This world wasn't all pain. Heaven also was here. It must have required wide, wide passages of human happiness to have created all those legends of Hope, of Peace Everlasting, of a God of Love. All this in a world where roses still have thorns, where Cain still murders Abel. And coming down from the mountain we took down one of those books Dean Bode gave us—when he was moving to Pasadena: Charles Kingsley's beautifully written little book— everything he ever wrote was beautifully written—about "the Hermits."

HOW there'd been Hermits always—holy men who, when they felt that the world was getting so rotten that soon it would have to be destroyed, went out into the desert places, there to pray and suffer and watch. An instance would be, say, in the Fifth Century. When Rome had been sacked and when there'd been war and pestilence and black chaos throughout practically the whole so-called civilized world. So like the world today. Then an exodus of the hermits. Not in a group. Singly. Here and there. They that had faculties still fine enough to catch the prompting of the Still Small Voice. They the Dreamers, the Makers and Shakers, the Crucified.

WITHOUT whom, so the testimony runs, there'd be no world today; nor anything—except what there was before the Beginning. But the Beginning, that was Pain, so the Revelation runs. This Revelation, you can find it everywhere. In all the rocks buried at the very heart of the Earth. And in all the Sacred Books of the World, some of which go back—go back, or up, according to the Great Ones—to a time when this earth was still a dream—in the Soul of the All even then dreaming of Crucifixion—and likewise of Ascension. "O Little Man" — Mother Earth speaking — "think upon these things also when you weep."

Case and Comment

By Charles B. Showalter

THE world today, more so than ever before in its history, has become the victim of many "isms." And the chief ism of them all, the one from which all others derive their origin, is atheism.

Atheism is on the march! And it is to that fact the world owes most, if not all, its turbulence, its unrest, its bewilderment, its sorrow and its despair. For neither nations, nor peoples, nor individuals can realize the fullness of their power or their opportunities without God. Notwithstanding all arguments to the contrary, GOD IS, and to be without God is to be without hope in the world. All the experience of history proves conclusievely that He does take care of nations and peoples and individuals who acknowledge Him. And no one who makes God his life partner will ever come to want.

Formerly atheism was only a quiet unbelief, but today it has come out in the open, and has become militant. Atheism has found a successful means for waging effective war against God, by teaming itself up with the forces of so-called social progress. And the modern social progress advocates assure us that the idea of God is the chief obstacle to true social advancement.

That is a fallacious doctrine. That it is also designedly false and an invention of his satanic majesty is amply proven by the social progress attained in the centuries past, and based upon the belief in the saving revelation of God in human life.

The real purpose behind all the modern isms, including atheism, to which people subscribe so readily ,is to take away from those who have and give to those who have not. It doesn't stagger the reformer a bit to point out that those who have, probably earned all they have by great effort, by foresight, by intelligent planning, by effective service, and while earning contributed much to the social welfare of their fellow-men. No. He must be dispossed. And what he has, given to him who has not. Nor does the reformer recognize that he would thus confer the possessions on a class less competent and also less worthy.

We are told that God is on the side of the possessing classes, and if we are to dispossess the "haves," we must get God out of the way. Therefore the justification for the atheistic doctrine.

But there is a better way, a surer way—"Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteuosness, and all these things will be added unto you."

"That is not an empty promise. Millions of men and women in all ages have proven its worth and its practical workability.

Modern humanity has grown so wise, so practical, so sophisticated, that the ancient doctrines are out-moded and new ideas advanced to meet changed conditions. But do conditions change? Are the new ideas better or more workable? We doubt it. The Romans chanted at the trial of Jesus— "We have no God but Caesar." What happened to them?

The Russians sing, "We have no God but Lenine." Look at them!

The Germans heil, "We have no God but Hitler." Who wants to be a German?

The Japanese shout the praises of and die for the "Son of Heaven," yet all outside the soldier and capitalistic class are steeped in the most abject poverty. And no Italian dares to put God or anything else above Musolini.

Marxism, Leninism, Communism, Socialism, Nazism, Facism, much of New Daelism, which borrowed from all the others— all are basically Atheistic, in rebellion against God, Antagonistic to the rights and liberties of men. And wherever their ideas have prevailed the material and spiritual welfare of men has suffered incalculable loss.

The "isms" applied to society and to government mean tyranny, oppression, despotism, and the citizen becomes the slave of the state. We can only have democracy, recognition of and respect for the rights of the individual, personal freedom and civil liberty in a Christian state.

And God will not be eliminated by denial. He still IS. And will in His own time, take all power unto Himself.

OVER a million and a quarter people attended the Los Angeles county and the California State fairs this year. The actual attendance was, State at Sacramento, 637,682; Los Angeles County Fair, 660,797; total, 1,298,479. New all time records were established at both fairs and both greatly exceeded their previous beauty and usefulness.

It sounds like a fairy tale, but the enrollment in the University of California on all its campuses so far this year is already 25,639, an increase of ten per cent over last year when the enrollment was 23,218. Late registrants are expected to bring the figure to 25,750.

For three months this summer there was an average of 25,000 campers and hotel visitors in Yosemite National Park though attendance for the year fell off seven per cent due to the March storm. The normal average over nine months is 12,000—with a June, July and August peak. Relocation of camping areas is being considered so as to preserve as largely as possible the primitive atmosphere of the valley floor.

Post office officials are considering issuing new one, two and three cent stamps. They think the solid green, red and purple colors are unattractive. Shortly. these stamps may be issued in bicolors.

Fires in America last year licked up some $250,000,000 worth of property. Proper observance of Fire Prevention Week, October 9 to 15, means eliminating fire hazards. This is the wise man's way of fighting fire before the damage is done!

To keep the productive forces of an entire nation active requires intelligent salesmanship on a large scale, and this foremost selling job in America today is being carried on by the country's press. That statement is backed by Col. Leroy W. Herron of the Washington D.C. Star who points out that no less than 40,000,000 newspapers daily are carrying on that indispensable job. For effectiveness and thoroughness, you can't beat 40,000,000 salesmen bearing a significant and timely message.

Nearly twice as many residential units for American families were built in cities of 10,000 population or more during August this year as in August, 1937, according to the Federal Home Loan Bank Board. On the basis of statistics gathered from these cities, it was found that while the number of all units constructed in August was slightly below those built in July, the total of one-family dwellings constructed in August was larger. This indicates a temporary trend, at least, from apartments to private residences.

There is nothing much new in what Daniel Bartolozzi, cashier of one of San Francisco's largest wholesale firms said after his conviction on charges of embezzlement. "My trouble started when I began betting on horse races," he said. Thousands of other prison inmates will tell you the same thing.

White Californians, who expected to be relieved of the competition of 60,000 Filipinos by the Filipino Repatriation Act, have had their hopes dashed. In three years only 1900 U. S. Filipinos have accepted the free transportation home provided by the Act —which expires December 1.

OBITUARY

RUTH CORNUELLE

"The Little Stone Church" that her father built was filled with sorrowing friends Tuesday morning when last rites were held for Ruth Cornuelle, 461 East Grand View avenue, who passed away Sunday at her home.

She was born in Madisonville, Ohio, now a part of Cincinnati, August 11, 1891, and during her 26 years of residence in Sierra Madre became well known for her work in Bethany Church, of which she was a founder. Love of nature was an outstanding characteristic of the kindly woman, who in the last few years studied birds of the vicinity and catalogued 49 different species that appeared in the bath her father made for them in the garden of their home.

Miss Corneulle was a bookkeeper for Dr. George W. Groth for a time, but due to failing health, led a quiet life at home for the past 10 years.

Rev. S. R. Sheriff, pastor, paid tribute to the deceased and conducted the services. Mrs. Gordon Brooks sang "Lead, Kindly Light" and "Safe In the Arms of Jesus." Interment was in the Sierra Madre cemetery.

MRS. JEANNIE SCHMITT

The many Sierra Madre friends of Mrs. Jeanne Schmitt formerly of this city, will be grieved to hear of her passing in Hollywood last week. Mrs. Schmitt will long be remembered here for her many philanthropic activities during her residence in the community. Servics were held at St. Ambrose Church in Hollywood, with interment at Calvary cemetery.

WALTER R. SEAMSTER

Final rites for Walter R. Seamster, 3 Carter avenue, who died Sunday, were held at Ives and Warren mortuary, Pasadena, Wednesday morning. Interment was at Louisville, Ky.

A noted race horse trainer, Mr. Seamster was born at Jeffersonville, Ind., 51 years ago. He was trainer of the Circle M. Ranch stable until his illness several months ago. He was a World War veteran and member of American Legion, Pasadena Post No. 13.

MRS. CLARA RENEAU

A two year fight against death was lost by Mrs. Clara Reneau of this city who passed away Saturday morning at the Los Angeles General Hospital where she was taken for emergency treatment for a pulmonary complaint about three weeks ago.

Mrs. Reneau resided with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Hollister of 246 North Lima street for the past three years. Funeral services were held Monday in Los Angeles with interment at San Gabriel Memorial Park.

Mrs. Reneau who was 23 years old is survived by a three-year old son Larry; three sisters, Mrs. Vard Wallace of West Grand View avenue; Mrs. Homer Robinson and Mrs. Ernest Boyer of Long Beach; two brothers, Russell Hollister of Long Beach and Roy P. Hollister of Kansas City, and her parents.

FRANK TRIPLETT

Frank Triplett, former resident of Sierra Madre, and brother of Mrs. S. G. Seeley, of 255 North Adams street, who for the past two years has been living in San Francisco, passed away following a heart attack Wednesday at his home in the bay city.

What A Girl Sees Ramblin' 'Round

EXCITED boys and girls covered the business district bright and early Saturday morning clutching treasure hunt tickets in their hands . . . They dashed up and down the streets and glued their noses to the window panes in an effort to determine their chances of carrying home a treasure. One little girl, daughter of a teacher in the grammar school, was overjoyed when she learned the lovely doll in one of the windows was hers. Mrs. M. R. McBurney was just as pleased with the crystal console set she drew. Both treasures were offered by the same store and it seemed to be sheer luck that the small girl drew the doll . . More often than not during the course of a treasure hunt bewildered elderly gentlemen find themselvs possessors of distinctly feminine frippery while young girls draw articles that gladden only masculine hearts . . . All in all, the treasure seekers were well pleased with their awards . . . They say apples cannot be grown in Sierra Madre but Mrs. George Halpin, 153 East Highland avenue, brought in two speckled red and yellow beauties from the tree she planted in her yard from seed five years ago . . . The tree is now about eight feet high and the trunk is about five inches in diameter . . . This year it has borne 15 apples, good sized ones too . . . Although there are crab apple trees in the city, as far as Mrs. Halpin has been able to find out, the tree that she carefully nursed from the time it was a tiny green shoot, is the only one is Sierra Madre . . . Many Kiwanians were a little surprised at their meeting a week ago when a prominent nurseryman advocated their planting the kind of grass many of them had been doing their best to get rid of . . . Bermuda grass doesn't sound much like devil's grass and it took some Kiwanians a long time before the fact dawned upon them that instead of uprooting the devil's grass they thought such a nuisance they should pamper and help it along . . . because it is one of the best lawn varieties for this section of the country . . . There is something in a name, after all . . .

Fame and great fortune are due the friend of mankind who invented and those who have conspired with him to make available to the world the marvelous "mystery" radio set Tom Schwartz is demonstrating at his radio shop, for groups of his interested fellow townsmen . . . What a boon it is to a public that has had its patience tried in fire by unwise but windy radio announcers and lying salesmen who have put murder into the hearts of millions of American forced to endure their wordy, boresome harrangues in order to enjoy a few minutes of a favorite musical organization of the address of some statesman or celebrity . . . With this "mystery" box, a small unit having no wire or other connection with a radio set, it is not only possible but astoundingly easy to tune out tiresome, offensively long winded, high powered salesmen from any part of the house, patio or garden, far removed from the radio itself . . . You simply press a button and your tormentor is silenced, to make way for music or some other form of entertainment you may select . . . and if another offender butts in with a lengthy speech prepared for him by his sponsor, another touch of a button and he, too, is vanquished . . and so without end one may dismiss these unwanted intruders from the home . . . What a joy to be able to sit down and enjoy a favorite program without having to drop one's paper, or get up from the bridge table, or rush into the living room from the kitchen to tune out an offender at the radio set . . . We have so infuriated by long winded pedto infuriated by long winded peddlers of the air that they were on the point of tossing their radio sets into the fire, or out the window . . . wishing they could choke or murder the ill mannered salesmen who would be denied admission through their doors, but who feel no qualms about intruding endlessly over the air. . . We confess that murder has been in our own hearts hundreds of times . . . Now we can have our revenge on these enemies of poise . . . these disturbers of the peace of mind, by simply carrying this little contrivance around with us and by a slight movement of the finger strike them dumb . . . All hail this emancipator . . inventor of the "mystery" box.

National Fire Prevention Week got off to a blazing start Monday when sirens and whistles one after another heralded the shrieking passage of fire trucks . . It might have been good publicity, of a negative sort . . . but there was no faking involved in the alarms . . . The trucks were off to answer the call of duty, not once but twice . . .

Local Poet Listed Among America's Greatest Women

Who are America's greatest women? Two books seek to answer this question, each an authoritative national who's who among women. Both of them, "Leading Women of America" and "American Women," almost simultaneously this week selected a Sierra Madre woman for inclusion; Lucia Trent Cheyney. Both sought biographical and bibliographical details. As only the foremost women in all important activities are included, relatively few towns are represented and they are scattered throughout the nation. These bring the who's whos, biographic dictionaries, etc., in which Mrs. Cheyney's life and works are reported up to almost a dozen. Previously this year both the Cheyneys were included in "Who's Who Among the Poets."

Mrs. Frank Hamilton of Pasadena was a houseguest this week of Mrs. Louis Zeigler of 475 East Sierra Madre Blvd.

Dance To Celebrate Founding Of The American Legion

To celebrate the 20th anniversary of the founding of the American Legion, the local post will hold an Armistice Day dance November 12, at the Woman's clubhouse. Plans were made at a meeting of the committee Wednesday night. Committe members present were Harold Roberts, E. D. Robertson, Will Clement, Norman Jensen, Jim Irvine, Bill Cronin, Dan Lewis and G. R. Lovejoy.

The Legion auxiliary will have charge of arrangements for card playing in conjunction with the dance. Representing the auxiliary at the meeting were President Helen Smith, Florence Jensen and Helen Lovejoy.

"SPAWN OF THE NORTH" AT LYRIC THEATRE

Woman's Club Notes

NEWCOMERS are much pleased with Sierra Madre and were not a bit hesitant about telling Mrs. Al Myers, president of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club, that they are glad their new homes are located in the foothill country. Half a hundred women who have recently arrived in the city were guests of the Woman's club at the initial fall meeting and tea Wednesday afternoon at the clubhouse. Many of them said they would be back for future meetings.

The program for the opening of the 1938-39 season began with a cordial welcome to old and new members and the introduction of the only charter member present, Mrs. Elizabeth Dietz, by Mrs. Myers, who spoke of ideals which have contributed to the eminent and constructive attainments that have placed Women's clubs foremost among civic organizations of the country. Mrs. Myers also read a letter from Mrs. John Stearns, president of the Los Angeles District of California Federation of Women's Clubs in which the words of Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, "we must have organization of our individual lives if we are to accept the challenge of womanhood," were stressed.

A message from the District Vice President, Mrs. Oscar Elvrum followed with special emphasis on the necessity for inculcating a sense of individual responsibility to the community to maintain a firm front aganist the doctrines which are endangering the foundation of our country. Mrs. Myers discussed the great and sincere efforts among members in previous years which have made the club the center of community life and culture and called upon all members to realize that the organization is larger than any individual. The president closed with a request to members who are interested in study groups to make their hobbies known so that these units may be added to the garden, literature and French sections.

Mrs. Patrick O'Mara, Pasadena, gave a short review of the play, "You Can't Take It With You," and Lucia Trent Cheyney read her peace poem, "It Is Not Too Late." The program closed with vocal numbers by Miss Leona Holmes, accompanied by Mrs. A. D. Cain, program chairman.

Members and guests gathered around tea tables charmingly decorated by Mrs. W. S. Hull with orange toned zinnias and tapers, and presided over by Mrs. E. E. Bacon and Mrs. J. H. Robertson, past presidents.

The Literary Section of the Woman's Club will open at 3 o'clock this afternoon, the 14th, with Lucia Trent assisted by Ralph Cheyney, leading. Short stories, articles, essays, one-act plays and other forms of prose will be read and discussed as well as poetry. The principles of their creation will be taught and the writings of members read aloud and constructively criticized. This group is open to the public without charge and is a continuation under the Club's sponsorship of the series already enthusiastically under way as part of the Pasadena Extension School system.

GARDEN SECTION WILL EXCHANGE BULBS, PLANTS

The garden section of the Woman's Club will hold a bulb and plant exchange at the clubhouse at 10 a.m. next Wednesday, which will be followed by a picnic at Fern Dell in Griffith Park. All members interested in visiting the Dell should make their reservations with either Mrs. W. J. Lawless or Mrs. Alice Sedgeman, and are requested to bring a basket lunch.

PARENTS ARE HONORED AT BIRTHDAY PARTY

Sons, daughters and grandchildren gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Hopper Sunday for a birthday celebration honoring both of their parents, who, while their natal days are not identical, always celebrate together .Members of the family who were present were Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Edwards of Santa Paula; Mrs. Jewell Kelley of Santa Paula; Mr. and Mrs. Irving Hopper and son Irving Jr., of Azusa; and Mr. and Mrs. Wendel Hopper and son Wendel also of Azusa. This was a particularly happy day for Mr.and Mrs. Hopper Sr., because of the recent discharge of their son Wendel from the Government Hospital at Sawtelle where he has been a patient for the past three years.

Miss Barbara Hostetter, teacher in the Bakersfield city schools, was weekend houseguest of Mrs. A. R. Hewitt of 4 Bella Vista Terrace.

Local Poet Listed Among America's Greatest Women

Who are America's greatest women? Two books seek to answer this question, each an authoritative national who's who among women. Both of them, "Leading Women of America" and "American Women," almost simultaneously this week selected a Sierra Madre woman for inclusion; Lucia Trent Cheyney. Both sought biographical and bibliographical details. As only the foremost women in all important activities are included, relatively few towns are represented and they are scattered throughout the nation. These bring the who's whos, biographic dictionaries, etc., in which Mrs. Cheyney's life and works are reported up to almost a dozen. Previously this year both the Cheyneys were included in "Who's Who Among the Poets."

"SPAWN OF THE NORTH" AT LYRIC THEATRE

Mrs. Frank Hamilton of Pasadena was a houseguest this week of Mrs. Louis Zeigler of 475 East Sierra Madre Blvd.

OBITUARY

RUTH CORNUELLE

"The Little Stone Church" that her father built was filled with sorrowing friends Tuesday morning when last rites were held for Ruth Cornuelle, 461 East Grand View avenue, who passed away Sunday at her home.

She was born in Madisonville, Ohio, now a part of Cincinnati, August 11, 1891, and during her 26 years of residence in Sierra Madre became well known for her work in Bethany Church, of which she was a founder. Love of nature was an outstanding characteristic of the kindly woman, who in the last few years studied birds of the vicinity and catalogued 49 different species that appeared in the bath her father made for them in the garden of their home.

Miss Corneulle was a bookkeeper for Dr. George W. Groth for a time, but due to failing health, led a quiet life at home for the past 10 years.

Rev. S. R. Sheriff, pastor, paid tribute to the deceased and conducted the services. Mrs. Gordon Brooks sang "Lead, Kindly Light" and "Safe In the Arms of Jesus." Interment was in the Sierra Madre cemetery.

MRS. JEANNIE SCHMITT

The many Sierra Madre friends of Mrs. Jeanne Schmitt formerly of this city, will be grieved to hear of her passing in Hollywood last week. Mrs. Schmitt will long be remembered here for her many philanthropic activities during her residence in the community. Servics were held at St. Ambrose Church in Hollywood, with interment at Calvary cemetery.

WALTER R. SEAMSTER

Final rites for Walter R. Seamster, 3 Carter avenue, who died Sunday, were held at Ives and Warren mortuary, Pasadena, Wednesday morning. Interment was at Louisville, Ky.

A noted race horse trainer, Mr. Seamster was born at Jeffersonville, Ind., 51 years ago. He was trainer of the Circle M. Ranch stable until his illness several months ago. He was a World War veteran and member of American Legion, Pasadena Post No. 13.

MRS. CLARA RENEAU

A two year fight against death was lost by Mrs. Clara Reneau of this city who passed away Saturday morning at the Los Angeles General Hospital where she was taken for emergency treatment for a pulmonary complaint about three weeks ago.

Mrs. Reneau resided with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Hollister of 246 North Lima street for the past three years. Funeral services were held Monday in Los Angeles with interment at San Gabriel Memorial Park.

Mrs. Reneau who was 23 years old is survived by a three-year old son Larry; three sisters, Mrs. Vard Wallace of West Grand View avenue; Mrs. Homer Robinson and Mrs. Ernest Boyer of Long Beach; two brothers, Russell Hollister of Long Beach and Roy P. Hollister of Kansas City, and her parents.

FRANK TRIPLETT

Frank Triplett, former resident of Sierra Madre, and brother of Mrs. S. G. Seeley, of 255 North Adams street, who for the past two years has been living in San Francisco, passed away following a heart attack Wednesday at his home in the bay city.

THE FRIENDLY TRAIN to CHICAGO

"I had all kinds of fun on the Californian. All the passengers and the people who work on the train were so friendly. Everybody smiles. Lots of good food to eat. And scenery? I looked out of the window most all day long. Beautiful sunsets and mountains and big cities. I saw Indians and Mexicans and real cowboys too. Gee, did I have a good time!"

AND YOU MAY SPOIL THE SIGHT

WILL THEY BE "EYE-CRIPPLES"? . . . There are few things more tragic than a child with defective vision, because it is often a needless handicap. In many cases adequate light would have kept the child's eyes strong and keen. Good light . . . safe light . . . costs so little and means so much. Your children will have a happier, better life if you safeguard their eyes now—with adequate light at home.

GIVE THEM APPROVED LIGHTING . . . Give your children an approved study and reading lamp for safety. Look for the lamp with the special diffusing bowl under the shade. At all dealers.

PROPOSITION #1

A State Law to End Wasteful Labor Warfare

This labor initiative act will give the entire State relief from labor abuses. It is similar to the city ordinance passed by the voters of Los Angeles September 16.

State Proposition #1 is Fair to All Because:

WORKERS CAN ORGANIZE –

WORKERS CAN STRIKE –
(but no sit-downs, nor seizures of property).

WORKERS ON STRIKE CAN PICKET –
(but with reasonable regulations and only peaceful methods).

WORKERS ON STRIKE CAN BOYCOTT –

BUT NOBODY CAN –
interfere with free use of the highways and wharves by farmers or anyone else.

NOBODY CAN carry on MASS picketing

NOBODY CAN use coercion or intimidation to force free citizens to join unions, or not join them, or other un-American practices.

NOBODY CAN use the excuse of "hot cargo" for boycotting or picketing because a union official declares a commodity "unfair."

NOBODY CAN boycott those with whom they have no quarrel. In brief — no secondary boycotts.
